THE IMPACT OF PHILANTHROPY AT THE U.S. AIR FORCE ACADEMY

Philanthropy improves and expands the U.S. Air Force Academy's campus, preserves its heritage and that of the Air Force and Space Force, and supports the development of cadets into leaders of character.

AIR GARDEN RESTORATION (2021)

The Air Force Academy restored the iconic Air Garden in the National Historic Landmark Cadet Area to its original design with financial support from the classes of 1972, 1975, and 1976 and the Dorothy D. and Joseph A. Moller Foundation.

AIR WARRIOR COMBAT MEMORIAL (2021)

Spearheaded by the Class of 1971, the Air Warrior Combat Memorial celebrates the first 100 years of aerial combat.

CLASS OF 1959 CHALLENGE BRIDGE (2004)

The Air Force Academy's first graduating class and its air training officers created this bridge to challenge and inspire all incoming cadets.

CLASS OF 1974 FOREVERMORE OVERLOOK (2023)

As its 50th reunion class gift, the Class of 1974 planned and funded this trail just west of the Cadet Chapel for cadet exercise and reflection.

DISTINGUISHED GRADUATE MEMORIAL (2026)

This memorial honors all graduates who have been named Distinguished Graduates by the Air Force Academy and the Association of Graduates.

ERDLE FIELD RENOVATION (2023)

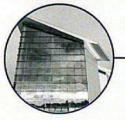
A lead gift from the Erdle family honors the life and Academy career of Brig. Gen. (Ret.) Philip J. Erdle.

HH-3E JOLLY GREEN GIANT (2022)

The HH-3E Jolly Green Giant at the Air Warrior Combat Memorial honors all search and rescue teams who performed their duties so others may live. Max James '64 and the Class of 1981 supported the project.

HOLADAY ATHLETIC CENTER (2011)

Named for lead donors Bart '65 and Lynn Holaday, the Holaday Athletic Center is the largest privately funded capital project in Academy history.



HOSMER VISITOR CENTER (2026) AND HOTEL POLARIS (2024)

The TrueNorth Commons at the Air Force Academy's North Gate serves as a new front porch to the Academy for visitors, graduates and families.

KUCERA LEGACY CENTER (2024)

Lead donors Jack '78 and Vianne Kucera were the lead donors for the modernization of the east side of Falcon Stadium, making it possible to attract more events and generate additional revenue to benefit the Academy and all cadets.

LT. COL. KEVIN SHEA MEMORIAL (2009)

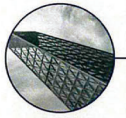
Dedicated to valor, this memorial from the Class of 1989 honors their classmate, who was killed in action in Iraq in 2004.

MADERA CYBER INNOVATION CENTER (2025)

Lead donors Paul '78 and Joan Madera and thousands of others supported this new building focused on preparing cadets for leadership in cyber operations and national security.

PLANETARIUM & STEM CENTER RENOVATION (2019)

A lead gift from John Martinson '70 spearheaded a modernization of the Academy's 1959 planetarium with state-of-the-art technology to support STEM education.



POLARIS HALL (2016)

Supported by donors, Polaris Hall is home to the Center for Character and Leadership Development and includes a lecture hall, collaboration rooms, the Honor Board room and a leadership library.

SOUTHEAST ASIA PAVILION (2010) AND PLAZA OF HEROES (2015)

The Class of 1970 funded, designed and oversaw construction of the Southeast Asia Memorial Pavilion and Plaza of Heroes on the Doolittle Campus Heritage Trail.

SPIRIT OF '76 ECHELON (2026)

The Class of 1976 honors all graduates through 2079 with this project along the Heritage Trail.

WECKER HALL (2025) AND YOST PLAZA (2026)

Named for lead donors Dr. Bill '63 and Mary Linn Wecker, Wecker Hall is the new headquarters of the Air Force Academy Foundation. Yost Plaza honors the Academy's most generous donors as part of a class ring display.
